

Bossa Nova USA

Bossa Nova USA(jazz original scores) Play jazz: "Bossa Nova USA" is the original improvisation on the original theme by Dave Brubeck made by the Dave Brubeck Quartet ; it is included in the album "Dave Brubeck's Greatest Hits" recorded in 1954 and is one of the glories of the world jazz classics. Paul Desmond is one of the best alto-saxophonists in the world. Amazing confluence of two outstanding musicians always spellbound the audience. The Brubeck quartet ranged practically the whole world, recorded a lot of albums. It has existed for sixteen years.

Brubeck himself, Paul Desmond, the drummer Joe Morello exerted a strong influence on young jazzmen both in America, and Europe.

Dave Brubeck (b. 1920) is a world-renowned pianist and composer of jazz and classical music. Brubeck has been performing professionally since the 1930s and continues to tour the world. The Brubeck Quartet embodied the sound of "West Coast jazz" and was one of the most popular bands in the world during the 1950s and 1960s. In 1959 the Quartet released the groundbreaking album Time Out, which featured jazz performed in unusual time signatures.

Dave Brubeck Quartet One of the tunes from this album, "Take Five," became the best selling jazz single in history. Throughout his career, Brubeck has been a pioneer in exploring musical approaches such as polytonality (playing multiple keys within the same tune) and polyrhythms (playing multiple rhythms within the same tune). Although best known as a jazz musician, Brubeck's compositions also include large-scale choral and orchestral works in a classical tradition. In addition to his musical achievements, Brubeck is well known for his life-long support of human rights and social justice.

The Brubeck Collection is a unique accumulation of materials representing over seventy years in the creative life of one of jazz's most renowned practitioners. It includes, in its 350+ linear feet, a vast array of correspondence, photographs, audio and video recordings.
